Having scored in double digits every game this season, guard Kobe Sanders leads Cal Poly with 16.2 points per game.

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Following a 10-day break, the Cal Poly men's basketball program returns home to Mott Athletics Center to host San Jose State on Wednesday, Nov. 29. Tip time on ESPN+ is 7 p.m. for Cal Poly (2-4), playing just its second home game of the year and first since a Nov. 6 season-opening victory against La Verne. The Mustangs resume action Wednesday following a three-game stretch at California Baptist's Lancer Joust (Nov. 17-19) with Cal Poly opening the competition with a 61-60 defeat of St. Thomas before falling to Portland State (73-57) and CBU (67-58). San Jose State (5-2), which defeated another Big West foe in UC Irvine to open the season, stretched its winning streak to three Monday evening with a 78-65 home win against North Dakota State.

CAL POLY VERSUS SAN JOSE STATE: The Mustangs saw a three-game winning streak against the Spartans snapped with a 65-43 road loss last season. Cal Poly prevailed during San Jose State's last two trips to Mott Athletics Center, defeating the Spartans at home on Dec. 10, 2011 (79-52) and Dec. 13, 2020 (73-71). The Division I series is tied (4-4) while San Jose State leads the all-time series (16-5) dating to the first matchup between the two sides on Feb. 14, 1947.

SANDERS TAKES THE SCORING LEAD: After missing Cal Poly's final six games last season through injury, guard Kobe Sanders – the lone senior in the lineup – has scored in double digits in all six games this year and ranks ninth among Big West players with a team leading 16.2 points per game. Having most recently scored a season best 20 points against Portland

State (Nov. 18) and 17 at California Baptist (Nov. 19), Sanders also tops Cal Poly with a 91.3 (21-for-23) percent free throw mark while shooting 42.1 (8-for-19) percent from three-point range.

THE GRADUATE: Playing for the first time in two years after missing last season through injury, graduate guard Jarred Hyder ranks second in the lineup with 11.7 points per game following a 25-point effort at Wyoming (Nov. 9) – a performance one point shy of his career best 26 while a freshman at Fresno State on Nov. 10, 2019. An offseason transfer from California, Hyder – shooting 80.0 (12-for-15) percent from the free throw line – also scored 15 points at Denver.

BACK IN THE GREEN: A 48.4 (184-for-380) percent career shooter and ranked 10th in program history with 56 career blocks, graduate forward Tuukka Jaakkola – after performing for Cal Poly from 2018-22, earning his bachelors degree and departing the university – has returned to utilize his renewable 2020-21 season. As one of a handful, if not the only Division I player in this situation, Jaakkola appeared in all 28 of Cal Poly's games during his 2021-22 senior season. With 109 career games played for Cal Poly, Jaakkola needs just 20 more appearances to surpass guard Jamal Johnson's program record of 128 (2010-14).

LOOKING AHEAD (DEC. 2/4): Cal Poly plays its next three on the road, a stretch beginning at Idaho on Saturday, Dec. 2 and continuing at Oregon State on Monday, Dec. 4. Cal Poly, which defeated Idaho at home last season, 82-71, visits the Vandals for the first time since a Jan. 6, 2005 Big West matchup. Cal Poly's trip

JOHN SMITH • HEAD COACH

Fifth Season • Dominican University, 1994

With more than two decades of success at the Division I and junior college levels, John Smith is in his fifth season as Cal Poly men's basketball head coach.

Cal Poly closed the 2022-23 season by prevailing in the opening round of the Big West Championships for the second time in three years, defeating Long Beach State for the first time at the conference tournament.

Two seasons ago under Smith, Cal Poly held opponents to the second lowest field goal mark among Big West programs while playing in front of the second highest average attendance in the conference. Individually, forward Alimamy Koroma earned All-Big West honors for a second successive year.

To complete the 2020-21 season, Smith guided Cal Poly to the program's first Big West Championships victory in seven years.

During Smith's initial 2019-20 season, Cal Poly recorded the program's 300th Division I win versus CSUN (Jan. 11) and its 150th Big West victory against Hawaii (Feb. 8). With Smith earning his first victory as a Division I head coach against Simpson (Nov. 15), Cal Poly led the Big West at 6.4 steals per game.

Cal Poly also played the toughest schedule among Big West programs during Smith's first season as the Mustangs faced two ranked opponents (No. 15 San Diego State, No. 18 Saint Mary's), two opponents who finished the year ranked in the AP Top 25 poll (No. 7 Creighton, No. 25 Iowa) and five regular season conference champions in San Diego State (Mountain West), Creighton (Big East), North Dakota State (Summit League), Siena (MAAC) and UC Irvine (Big West).

"This program has high-character players who are academically driven," said Smith, who was named Cal Poly head coach on March 28, 2019. "Those are two things that are a precursor for success. It's a competitive group of players who are capable of being successful within the Big West."

Smith arrived at Cal Poly after serving as associate head coach at Cal State Fullerton from 2013-19

– a period of historic success for the Titans program. During Smith's final three seasons, Cal State Fullerton qualified for the 2018 NCAA Tournament and earned berths in the College Insider.com Postseason Tournament in 2017 and 2019. The Titans averaged 18 wins per year during Smith's final three seasons, finished among the top four programs in the Big West Conference standings each year and reached the semifinals of the Big West Tournament three times.

With Smith playing a pivotal role in Cal State Fullerton's recruiting efforts, eight Titans earned All-Big West honors during his final three seasons.

Prior to his successful tenure at Cal State Fullerton, Smith served as head coach at Riverside City College (2004-13), compiling a 196-87 (.693) overall record – the second-highest win total in school history – while leading the Tigers to four conference championships (2005, 2007, 2010-11), nine postseason berths, five 20-win seasons and the 2009 California Community College Athletic Association state championship (the school's first in 43 years).

In Smith's final season at Riverside City College, the 2012-13 Tigers finished 19-9 and posted a 9-3 mark in the Orange Empire Conference. Smith, meanwhile, earned his fifth and final Orange Empire Coach of the Year award.

As head coach and assistant athletics director at San Bernardino Valley College (2000-04), Smith posted an 88-40 overall record while directing the program to the 2003 CCCAA state tournament semifinals. He was named the 2003 Foothill Conference Coach of the Year while leading the program to a league championship.

His junior college coaching record stands at 265-118 (.692). In 2016, the California Community College Men's Basketball Coaches Association inducted Smith into its Hall of Fame for his outstanding work in building two programs and leading each to the state tournament.

Smith's coaching resume also includes positions as an assistant coach at two-year programs College of Southern Idaho and Chaffey College and J.W.

North High School (Riverside) and Valley View High School (Moreno Valley, Calif.). He also spent one season as the West Coast scout for the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Smith was a two-time all-league and all-county selection at J.W. North HS before playing at UNLV (1987-89). From there, he transferred to Dominican University (San Rafael, Calif.), where he was an NAIA All-California honorable mention selection and all-conference honoree under his brother, Steve.

He graduated from Dominican in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in psychology before earning a master's degree in kinesiology from Azusa Pacific in 2004.

Smith and his wife, Kelly, have three children. Son, Jamal, is an assistant coach with Cal Poly after competing as a graduate guard with the Mustangs (2019-20) and playing for his father at Cal State Fullerton (2015-19). He spent the 2021-22 season as Montana State's director of operations and 2022-23 in the same position with Cal Poly. Eldest daughter, Kianna, was a 2017 McDonald's All-America selection and helped Louisville to the 2022 Final Four. She was selected 16th overall in the 2022 WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks. Daughter, Kylee, played at J.W. North HS in Riverside.
