VEINOT HAS HIGH HOPES FOR ONE-HORSE FASIG JULY CONSIGNMENT

Trudy Veinot and Hip 107 | ThoroStride

by Jessica Martini

Trudy Veinot's Dreamcatcher consignment makes its second auction appearance in the Fasig-Tipton July Sale of Selected Yearlings and, while a son of Gift Box (hip 107) is the veteran horsewoman's sole entry in the sale, she is excited about the colt's prospects in the ring Tuesday.

Veinot, a transplanted Canadian now living in Lexington, purchased the colt for $30,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

"I liked his frame," Veinot said of the weanling's appeal. "There wasn't a lot of meat on those bones, but there was a beautiful frame. I liked the way he moved. This horse has probably the biggest walk on anything I've ever prepped in 20 years. I am hoping the buyers will see that. I am pretty sure that they will."

Of the colt's transformation since last fall, Veinot said, "You wouldn't even recognize him. It doesn't always go that way. You buy that frame in hopes that it will all fill out in the right places. And with him, it has."

The gray colt is out of La Boheme (Giant's Causeway), a half-sister to graded winners Electrify (Delaware Township) and Rothko (Arch).

RAY HANDAL'S SUSPENSION LIFTED BY HIWU; FEED TOXIN BLAMED by Sue Finley

After considering the findings submitted by attorney Clark Brewster, the Horse Racing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) has lifted the provisional suspension imposed on trainer Raymond Handal on Saturday, July 1 after a test detected the presence of Zeranol and Zearalenone in the urine sample taken from his horse, Barrage (War Front), May 28 at Belmont Park.

"Pursuant to ADMC Program Rule 3247(e), HIWU has lifted the Provisional Suspension based upon information submitted by the Covered Person and the review of relevant scientific information. The Equine Anti-Doping Notice has not been withdrawn," reads the notice on HIWU's website.

Rule 3247(e) reads simply, "(e) If it considers it appropriate to do so on the specific facts of the case, the Agency may lift the Provisional Suspension."

Veinot worked as a showman for Taylor Made Sales Agency for two decades before starting her Dreamcatcher consignment with two horses at the Keeneland January sale earlier this year. But her relatively late start in horse racing was anything but certain after growing up showing horses in Canada.

“I left Canada when I was 24, almost turning 25,” Veinot recalled. “I was in Nova Scotia, married and had five businesses, and I didn’t like anything I did. I was small enough. I always wanted to be a jockey. I knew a friend of a friend down in Maryland and he got me a job with Jonathan Sheppard. I packed up everything I owned and I went down to Jonathan Sheppard’s farm.”

Veinot rode her first race at 30, but after five years in the saddle turned to training. She found a niche buying yearlings and selling them at the track as 2-year-olds.

“I would buy yearlings with no pedigree and I would run them at Keeneland and sell them off of the track,” she explained. “I would gate break and gallop them all on my own.” That hands-on approach translated when she decided it was time to step back from breaking babies and transitioned to pinhooking weanlings to yearlings. “When I had to step back from getting on those 2-year-olds, I wasn’t really happy about that,” Veinot said. “To me, that was a step backwards. But I absolutely love weanling to yearlings. I break all of the babies before I bring them to the sale. And people know that I do that. I just like the one-on-one time with them. Anybody who knows me knows that I put a lot of groundwork in. All of my horses have had saddles and bridles and branches and tarps and balloons--I tie helium balloons to their backs before I get up on them. My favorite part is the groundwork and building confidence in the horse because I think it transcends onto the racetrack.”

 AN $850,000 YEARLING PURCHASE

In addition to showing at the sales for Taylor Made, Veinot sold her horses through the farm's sales consignments.

"I've partnered and sold with the Taylor Made boys for over 20 years," Veinot said. "Taylor Made always blessed me with the privilege of going into their consignment and coming with my horses. So I was always able to show my own horses with them because I showed for them for 20 years."

Among her pinhooking successes is Three Technique (Mr Speaker), who she purchased for $50,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale and sold the following year with Taylor Made for $180,000 at the Fasig-Tipton July sale. The 6-year-old recently added the July 1 GII John A Nerud S. to his resume.

"Three Technique was the first horse by Mr Speaker to go through the ring," Veinot said. "I didn't even know who Mr Speaker was, but I really liked him."

She also pinhooked Kalik (Collected), who she acquired for $80,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton October sale and resold for $200,000 at Keeneland the following September. The colt, owned by Bob LaPenta, e Five Racing Thoroughbreds and

Kalik | Susie Raisher

Madaket Stables and trained by Chad Brown, won the June 3 GII Pennine Ridge S. and heads postward in Saturday's GI Belmont Derby.

"Chad Brown said he was his best 2-year-old last year, but he got slow going," Veinot said of Kalik, who has now won three times from five starts. "He just won a stakes at Belmont that gave him an automatic entry into a $750,000 stakes. So I think he runs in New York before he heads to the Queen's [King's] Plate."

The 58-year-old Veinot made the decision to go out on her own in January. In Dreamcatcher's first consignment, she sold a 2-year-old filly by Vino Rosso for $28,000 and RNA'd a daughter of Thousand Words.

"It was just time to take the leap," Veinot said of the decision to start her own consignment. "By the time you give Keeneland 5% and [the consignor] 5%, it's $10,000 to sell your $100,000 horse. Financially this makes more sense. Truth be told, it made me a little nervous to step outside of the Taylor Made umbrella because they took care of the details, the paperwork, the entry forms. If I forgot something, they were on top of it. But, as long as I keep my ducks in a row as far as the paperwork goes, I am quite comfortable."

While she purchased individuals with little pedigree when selling 2-year-olds off the track years ago, Veinot has found a new strategy with her weanling buys.

"That's the toughest part of the game that I've had to conform to," she said. "I had the most beautiful Orb filly--just as one example--and nobody would buy an Orb. At that point they had all been burned by Orb and so I never got paid. So when I am looking at babies now, if I can afford the first-crop sires, I will. I can't afford the established sires, so what I will generally do is go in there and buy a first-crop sire with a smaller stud fee, like Mr Speaker and this Gift Box colt. But then I will try to buy something in that pedigree that might have a 2-year-old that could help me out next year. So I will look at all the yearlings turning two and the 2-year-olds turning three [in the weanling's pedigree] and hope to get a little lucky that way. That would be my niche, if you're buying on a budget."

Veinot, who leases a farm off Huntertown Road, plans on keeping her operation small to continue her hands-on approach.

"I keep a really boutique bunch because I do all the work myself," she said. "So a half-dozen is my magic number [to pinhook]. I did eight a couple of years ago and it was just too many."

Veinot still has her trainer's license and has two horses in her stable.

"I kept a horse that I liked and had some talent and named him after my dad," she said of You Make Me Happy (Firing Line). "He broke his maiden here at Keeneland in the fall, but I don't brag to be a trainer. I did that when I was pinhooking yearlings to 2-year-olds. I did that for 10 years and then I took a break and started doing the weanlings. When You Make Me Happy came along, I took my trainer's license back out for him. And I've kept another filly who went through that January sale, she's a filly by Thousand Words who I think has a ton of talent and I'm going to race her under my own name."

Fasig-Tipton will host its July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale Monday at Newtown Paddocks with bidding beginning at 2 p.m. The Fasig-Tipton July Sale of Selected 2-Year-Olds will be held Tuesday beginning at 10 a.m.

Brewster argued that UC Davis's finding that Zearalenone, a common feed contaminant, was also in the sample, pointed to the fact that mycotoxins in the feed had caused the positive. He provided HIWU with documentation supporting his claims.

"I'm pleased," said Brewster, "It's great when you have the kind of transparency and applications of rules that most scientists are trying to see. I don't think the provisional suspension was warranted, but the rules for HISA and HIWU are written very directly without a lot of discretion. I have to hand it to the lab at UC Davis on pointing out the atypical finding and I'm pleased that when we supplied the literature and our position that the HIWU folks took it seriously, reviewed it and made the right decision."

Brewster said that he hoped that this case would provide a blueprint for future situations like this, and help to foster common-sense solutions.

"I think it will be helpful as we work through these rules and understand some of the exceptions and interpretive points," Brewster said. "For now, they did what the rules required them to do. They found a prohibited substance, issued a provisional suspension, and then said the positive came from a feed toxin and did what they had to do."

"With his provisional suspension lifted today by HIWU, trainer Ray Handal is once again able to fully participate in all training and racing activities at NYRA tracks," said NYRA's Vice President of Communications Patrick McKenna.

DELAWARE JOCK GETS 15 DAYS FOR 'FAILURE TO GIVE BEST EFFORT'

Sarah Andrew

by T.D. Thornton

Jockey Raul E. Mena is appealing a 15-day suspension and $1,000 fine imposed by the Delaware Park stewards after a "failure to give best effort" ruling was lodged against him following a last-place finish aboard a 1-for-19 filly who trailed at every call in a $5,000 NW2L claiming sprint June 28.

Sarah Crane, the executive director of the Delaware Thoroughbred Racing Commission (DTRC), confirmed in an email that Mena, 31, has been granted a stay of his penalties until a Sept. 19 hearing.

But Crane declined an opportunity to address questions about to the severity of the stewards' penalties in relation to the recent poor form of the filly Mena rode: In each of her previous three starts, Harper's Do (Straight Talking) had finished next to last at Laurel Park and Charles Town, and had been beaten 63 combined lengths.

In two of those efforts, Harper's Do had earned a Beyer Speed Figure of zero, which matches the figure she earned again on June 28 when she finished seventh, beaten 26 lengths, under Mena.

"Best for me to hold any comments while matter is under appeal," Crane wrote when TDN queried about any mitigating circumstances. "I saw no valid reason not to grant a stay of suspension."

TDN could not immediately reach Mena for comment.

Owned and trained by Mario Serey, Jr., Harper's Do went off at 6-1 odds under Mena, who was riding her for the first time in the eighth and final race of the afternoon at Delaware June 28.

Harper's Do came out of the gate seventh and last, then was guided to the eight path under a light hold. The filly dropped so far back that she was mostly out of the pan shot from the half-mile pole to the wire, with the head-on camera showing her a long way last while traveling five wide around the turn and in the six path through the home straight. The Equibase chart caller's comment stated that Harper's Do "broke slowly, fell far back, raced wide and was not urged."

The stewards' report for that race listed on the DTRC website noted that Harper's Do was selected for "special" post-race testing. But otherwise, the three stewards--Joelyn Rigione, Robert Colton and William Troilo--described the race as, "Good start for all, no incidents to report."

The July 4 ruling, however, noted that the stewards had also ordered a "soundness evaluation" and that Harper's Do had "jogged sound after the eighth race on June 28, 2023, per the Test Barn Veterinarian."

After reviewing the films of the race with Mena on July 1 and "considering his testimony," the stewards then imposed the "failure to give best effort" penalties. Prior to Mena's appeal, his suspension had been slated to start July 13.

Mena has compiled a 12-for-77 riding record with $259,965 in earnings this year. His season started late, on Apr. 16, because he was recovering from a fractured left femur sustained in a Tampa Bay Downs racing accident on Dec. 7, 2022.

NFL'S MICHAEL LOPEZ KEYNOTE SPEAKER AT 71ST ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE

Michael Lopez, senior director of Data and Analytics for the National Football League, will be the keynote speaker for the 71st Annual Round Table Conference on Matters Pertaining to Racing, The Jockey Club announced Wednesday.

The conference will be held at the Saratoga Springs City Center in Saratoga Springs, New York, on Thursday, Aug. 3, at 10 a.m. ET. Chairman Stuart S. Janney III will preside over the conference and give insights on activities of The Jockey Club and the future of the sport.

Lopez will discuss how data is analyzed to enhance and help better understand football and possible correlations with horse racing.

Lindsay Czarniak, a sports reporter and anchor who works for FOX NFL and FOX NASCAR, will use her extensive knowledge of sports to provide observations on marketing of horse racing.

The conference will also feature two panels. The first will be hosted by Pat Cummings, executive director of the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation, with panelists Marshall Gramm, a professor at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee, and co-founder of the Ten Strike Racing syndicate, and David O'Rourke president and CEO of The New York Racing Association. The panel will focus on computer-assisted wagering and its effects on racetracks and bettors.

The second panel will address the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) after its first year of enactment. Panelists are Lisa Lazarus, CEO of HISA; Ben Mosier, executive director of the Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit; and trainers Jena Antonucci and Ron Moquett. The panel will be moderated by The Jockey Club President and COO James Gagliano.

In addition, Kyle McDoniel, president and COO of Equibase, will present on E-GPS and opportunities for Equibase to help grow the sport. Kristin Werner, senior counsel for The Jockey Club and administrator of its Thoroughbred Safety Committee, will discuss improved traceability of Thoroughbreds and analysis of the Equine Injury Database.

SARATOGA DERBY INVITATIONAL ANNOUNCED AS NEXT INTERNATIONAL QUALIFIER FOR LADBROKES COX PLATE

Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

The GI Saratoga Derby Invitational, slated for Saturday, Aug. 5 at Saratoga, will offer the winner an automatic berth into the G1 Ladbrokes Cox Plate, the New York Racing Association, Inc. and Moonee Valley Racing Club (MVRC) announced Wednesday.

The new partnership will provide the winner of the Saratoga Derby, a 1 3/16-mile test for sophomores, a place in the starting gate for the Ladbrokes Cox Plate Oct. 28 at Moonee Valley in Victoria, Australia, with winning connections afforded subsidies for transportation and accommodation.

In 2021, the Joseph O'Brien-trained State of Rest (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) won the Saratoga Derby before coming to Melbourne to win the Ladbrokes Cox Plate.

"The Saratoga Derby Invitational has proven to be a strong race, attracting both top North American horses as well as well-regarded international shippers," NYRA Senior Vice-President Racing Operations Frank Gabriel said. "The added bonus of a potential berth in one of the world's top races should only increase the strength of field."

MVRC Head of Racing Charlotte Mills added, "We feel there is still significant growth to come with the Saratoga Derby and it will continue to attract some of the best 3-year-olds in the world. The Ladbrokes Cox Plate has long been a stallion making race, and this connection between the two races also presents a wonderful opportunity for colts to secure a breeding career beyond racing, with recognition in both hemispheres eminent."

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

WHAT'S IN A NAME? ALFIO, ANTARES, THE WINE STEWARD, DIAMOND FILLIES AND THE TWO DICKENS by Andrea Branchini

Maybe opera is not as popular in the nomenclature of horses as classic ballet or theater, but Ohio multiple winner Alfio (Mucho Macho Man) carries a very solid and thoughtful operatic connection with his parents in his name. In the celebrated one-act opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" (1890), Alfio is the jealous husband who kills romantic rival "compare Turiddu" in a duel to the death. A possible translation of "Cavalleria Rusticana" could be "Rustic Gallantry." Some say that the opera is the solitary masterpiece of one-hit-wonder Pietro Mascagni (1863-1945). Still, some of the music of "Cavalleria Rusticana" is so uniquely entralling and beautiful that its overture and intermezzo have been played over and over well beyond the confines of opera theatres, including documentaries and movies--notoriously in the opening credits of "Raging Bull" (with De Niro as Jake La Motta shadow boxing in the ring). Unforgettable quality, worthy of a nine-length win.

4th-Thistledown, $29,700, Alw, 5-16, (NW3L), 3yo/up, 1m 70y, 1:43.80, ft, 9 lengths.

Stars, instead, are quite popular among horses' names. In any case, Presque Isle Downs winner Antares (American Pharoah) has quite a luminous standard to live up to. Not only Antares is the brightest star in the constellation of Scorpius (according to Wikipedia), but is regarded as the largest star in the known universe, in terms of volume--larger than the Sun (says Google). The dam of our brilliant horse is Alpha Centauri (by Dynaformer, not to be confused with the Niarchos family's namesake and European super-champion by Mastercraftsman). The heavenly Alpha Centauri is a triple star system, noted for her brightness, in the southern constellation of Centaurus. And, listen, there is more, at least for all those who ever happened to get excited in watching the chariots' race in the movie "Ben Hur": the four splendid white horses that John-Gosden-lookalike (and soundalike) Charlton Heston was driving in his quadriga were named Aldebaran, Altair, Rigel (pity, bye-bye assonance...), and, yes, Antares. All stars in the sky, and all stars in the Circus: bad boy Messala could not keep them from winning, not even by famously whipping competitor Ben Hur instead of his own horses. Ben Hur took the whip away from him, a maneuver not unknown to one or two jockeys of the modern era.

4th-Presque Isle Downs, $30,100, Msw, 6-6, 3yo/up, 6f (AWT), 1:09.61, ft, 4 1/4 lengths.

ANTARES (g, 3, American Pharoah--Alpha Centauri, by Dynaformer) O-Mathiesen Racing, LLC, Williams Family Trust, Polger, Lorne and Hall, Barry; B-Overbrook Farm (KY); T-William E. Morey.

Ellis Park and Belmont winner The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso) could be the first from a potentially rich vein of names from GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Vino Rosso. The double victor's name is the result of a clever wordplay between sire and dam Call to Service, whose first son seems to promise so much. In vino veritas.

Diamonds are a female's best friend, always: Indianapolis winner Vow (Union Rags) is out of Diamond Ring, while Charles Town victor Polish the Diamond (Fiber Sonde) is out of Stonecutter by, yes, Gemologist. And, just like winning fillies, diamonds are forever.

CHURCHILL DOWNS DONATES AGAINST ALL ODDS STATUE TO NATIONAL MUSEUM OF RACING AND HALL OF FAME

Churchill Downs Incorporated will donate "Against All Odds," an inspiring bronze statue by Edwin Bogucki, to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame as part of the Museum's permanent collection. The statue will be unveiled at its new home in Saratoga Springs July 12.

"Against All Odds" depicts the thrilling photo finish victory of John Henry with jockey William Shoemaker in the irons as they ran down The Bart in the shadow of the wire in the inaugural running of the Arlington Million in 1981, the first Thoroughbred race to boast a purse of $1 million. The statue was originally unveiled in 1989 at Arlington International Racecourse.

"It is a great honor to make this gift to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in memory of the late Richard Duchossois, where it will be prominently displayed and enjoyed by racing fans for many years to come," said Bill Carstanjen, CEO of CDI. "Much like Mr. Duchossois, 'Against All Odds' represents perseverance. May it serve as an inspiration to horses and humans alike that with courage and determination, what seems impossible can be achieved."

"We are most grateful to Bill Carstanjen and everyone at Churchill Downs Incorporated for the generous donation of the 'Against All Odds' statue to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame," said John Hendrickson, Chairman of National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. "This incredible work of art represents so many iconic elements of racing history--the inaugural Arlington Million, Hall of Famers John Henry and Bill Shoemaker, and the legacy of Richard Duchossois, a true Pillar of the Turf. We are honored to accept this wonderful addition to our collection and showcase it prominently on the Museum grounds, where it will have a forever home."

JOCKEY AND JEANS PRESIDENT BARRY PEARL RETIRES, SANDY HAWLEY RESIGNS

President of Jockeys and Jeans Barry Pearl has officially retired. The 76-year-old headed the annual event that has raised $3.1 million for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund in their nine-year history. A former jockey, Pearl later became the track photographer at Penn National Racetrack and then a top salesperson for West Publishing. He retired in 2009 and moved to Juno Beach Florida with his wife Dee.

Hall of Fame Jockey Sandy Hawley, who along with his wife Karou, oversaw relationships with Hall of Fame Jockeys has also resigned. Each year they arranged for some 12 to 16 Hall of Fame Jockeys to attend and honor their wheelchair bound “brothers and sisters.”

“Barry has organizational and sales skills far beyond my gifting,” said Vice President Eddie Donnally. “We would never have had this level of success without him at the helm. He embraced the cause for aiding disabled former jockeys and for him Jockeys and Jeans was a full-time job for at least six months out of the last nine years.”

Pearl indicated he stay on as an advisor and help with the transition.

“I hope the PDJF will embrace Jockeys and Jeans and keep it going,” said Pearl. “In the last nine years, I have met so many great people, fallen riders, Hall of Fame members and folks that truly care about jockeys who are now riding wheelchairs. It’s been a good run, but it’s time for me to hang up my tack.”

ONTARIO BOARD OF DIRECTORS ANNOUNCES CHANGES

The Board of Directors of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (Ontario Division) announced the resignation of Colleen Dalos as a Director of the Society effective May 18, 2023. Dalos served the Society and its membership for two years.

The Board also announced the appointment of René Hunderup and Robert Marzilli to the Ontario Board of Directors.

Hunderup (Norse Ridge Farms), has been a member since 1998 while Marzilli (Zilli Racing Stable) has been a member since 2018.

“The Board looks forward to having both René and Robert join us in supporting the membership as we prepare for our upcoming 2023 Sales Season,” commented Peter Berringer, President CTHS (Ont). “Both members bring a tremendous amount of experience and knowledge of the industry. We welcome their input and ideas moving forward.”

6th-Presque Isle Downs, $36,720, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($50,000), 7-5, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f (AWT), 1:09.81, ft, 3 lengths.

MARISSA'S LADY (f, 4, Violence--Marissa's Joy, by Cee's Tizzy) opened her career with four straight victories, including three in stakes company at Churchill Downs and Turfway Park in the winter of 2021/2022. She won the Serena's Song S. at Turfway last March before finishing fourth in the GII Eight Belles S. and went to the sidelines after finishing fifth while trying the lawn for the first time in the July 16 Blue Sparkler S. at Monmouth Park. She resurfaced with a fifth-place effort behind returning champion Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) in the May 29 GIII Winning Colors S. last time out. The 4-5 favorite with this class break, the gray filly was briefly in hand to track the pacesetter, but opted to dart through along the rail to take charge after a quarter in :22.36. Still in hand after a half in :45.60, she was let loose in upper stretch and strode clear a much-the-best three-length winner. Jill Jitterbug (Cross Traffic) was second. Marissa's Lady is a half-sister to Richard's Boy (Idiot Proof), MSW & GISP, $1,011,872. Marissa's Joy has a 2-year-old colt by Idiot Proof and she produced a filly by Violence this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. Lifetime Record: MSW, 10-6-1-0, $452,566. O/B-Harold & Pamela Tillema & Ron Boone Family Trust (KY); T-William E. Morey.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

2nd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,560, (S), Msw, 7-5, 2yo, 5f, :58.20, ft, 6 lengths.

GOODLOOKINJUSTICE (c, 2, Street Boss--With Wonder, by Flatter), facing just three rivals in this unveiling, rocketed out of the gate to the early lead with favored Indian Creed (Jimmy Creed) in close pursuit. The 9-5 shot shrugged off the favorite at the top of the lane and sailed clear to win by six lengths.

Goodlookinjustice RNA'd for $20,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. With Wonder produced a colt by Harry's Holiday last year and a filly by that same sire this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $21,600. O-Justice Farm; B-Justice Farm, Greg Justice (IN); T-Aaron M. West.

7th-Lone Star, $33,000, Msw, 7-4, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:37.46, fm, 3 lengths.

JUST BATTLE (g, 3, Justify--Battle Girl {SW}, by Midshipman) was gaining late to finish fifth in his six-furlong debut at this oval June 9. Moving to the lawn and stretching out to a mile for this second start, the 5-1 shot was jostled at the break, but recovered to chase the pacesetters while four wide into the first turn. Midpack and still wide down the backstretch, he began picking off foes approaching the far turn and he hit the front at the top of the lane. He was reluctant to change leads, ducked in and was drawing away despite racing greenly to the wire. Dawson City (Laoban) was three lengths back in second, a nose in front of It'll Do (Pioneerof the Nile). Just Battle was a $150,000 FTKOCT yearling and a $250,000 OBS April juvenile. Battle Girl, a half-sister to multiple Grade I winner Sweet Reason (Street Sense), has a 2-year-old filly by Justify named Just So Pretty who sold for $475,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. The mare produced colts by Street Sense the last two years. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $20,481. O-Highlander Training Center; B-WinStar Farm, LLC (KY); T-Shannon Ritter.

VINERY SALES GRADUATE

8th-Pleasanton, $29,846, Msw, 7-4, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10.95, ft, 2 1/4 lengths.

ALMOST SNOW (g, 3, Frosted--Rosedale, by Itsmyluckyday), sent off at 5-1, grabbed the early lead and was pressed through an opening quarter in :22.87. The gray gelding kicked clear into the far turn and turned back Slew's Joy (Slew's Tiznow) with a furlong to run before drawing away to graduate by 2 1/4 lengths. Almost Snow was a $27,000 KEESEP yearling purchase. The winner has a 2-year-old half-sister by Upstart and a yearling half-sister by Honest Mischief. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $15,600. O-Fred & Cindy Desimone & Mark Peters; B-Nursery Place, Donaldson & Broadbent (KY); T-Tim McCanna.

:57.47, fm, 4 3/4 lengths.

BUCKEYE BELLE (f, 3, Liam's Map--Lion Belle, by Lion Heart), sent off the 4-5 favorite, sat off the free-running Whiskey Diamond (Corfu), but reeled in that foe on the far turn and forged to the lead at midstretch before spurting clear to score by 4 3/4 lengths. The winner RNA'd for $60,000 at the 2021 OTBOMX sale. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,220. O/B-Maccabee Farm (OH); T-Thomas Drury, Jr.

O'BRIEN HAS FRENCH TARGETS FOR AL RIFFA AND ABOVE THE CURVE

Joseph O'Brien | Sarah Andrew

Joseph O'Brien is plotting a raid on Deauville with top performers Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Above The Curve (American Pharoah) after their respective performances at the Curragh on Irish Derby weekend.

Al Riffa, winner of the Vincent O'Brien National S. as a two-year-old, made a belated start to his campaign when second in a Group 3 while Above The Curve finished a creditable third in the Pretty Polly S.

O'Brien has nominated the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville in August for the colt next.

"He got on nicely and we were pleased to get him started for the season," O'Brien said. "We're looking forward to the rest of the season with him. He has a couple of Group 1 and Group 2 options, we're looking at a Group 2 in Deauville in August as potentially his next start. I think he will most likely stay at 10 furlongs for now."

Meanwhile, the ever-consistent Above The Curve could seek her third win on French soil in the Prix Jean Romanet on August 20.

"She ran a good race and has come out of the Pretty Polly well," O'Brien added. "We're looking at things like the Romanet and other races like that going forward. She has a lot of options there (France) and further afield as well." Cont. p3

IRISH AND GERMAN DERBY CARDS GENERATE €28.9 MILLION IN TURNOVER THROUGH WORLD POOL

Sunday's G1 Irish Derby at the Curragh and Hamburg's G1 Deutsches Derby cards both resulted in strong turnover for the World Pool, the Hong Kong Jockey Club announced on Wednesday.

A total of HK$246.9 million (€28.9m/£24.9m) was reported as turnover on the eight-race Irish card and the Deutsches Derby, which was the first-ever World Pool event in Germany. Created and operated by the HKJC, the World Pool event also offered value for racing fans with Tote+ Win beating SP in six of the eight races on Irish Derby Day and Tote+ Win overround as 107% compared to industry SP overround of 125%.

World Pool's €4,000 Moment of the Day was awarded to Megan Hassett, the groom of Harry's Hill (GB) (Heeraat {Ire}), who won the Rockingham H. The horse was trained by her father Martin and ridden by her cousin Wayne. Cont. p3

The Owing Hill handler also delivered a positive bulletin about his Galileo (Ire) Royal Ascot heroes Okita Soushi (Ire) and Dawn Rising (Ire), who both have further big-race assignments on their agendas.

“Both are in good shape and Dawn Rising will be considered for races like the Cesarewitch later in the season. Okita Soushi has an option in the Curragh Cup.”

The moment will be entered into the World Pool Moment of the Year, and Hassett is up for a VIP trip to Hong Kong in 2024, if she wins that accolade.

Michael Fitzsimons, Executive Director, Wagering Products, at the Hong Kong Jockey Club, said, “It was a really pleasing start to our first ever World Pool race in Germany with the Deutsches Derby and our first ever meeting at the Curragh on Irish Derby Day.”

Brian Kavanagh, Chief Executive Officer, The Curragh Racecourse, said, “The Curragh Racecourse was delighted to participate in the Tote World Pool for the first time for the Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby meeting last Sunday and we were delighted with the response of World Pool patrons.

“Good field sizes and competitive racing were the order of the day and history was made as Auguste Rodin completed the Epsom Derby/Irish Derby double, providing trainer Aidan O'Brien with his 100th European Classic winner and jockey Ryan Moore with his very first success in the Irish Derby.” Cont. p4

TWOMEY HAS YORKSHIRE OAKS IN MIND FOR ROSSCARBERY

Paddy Twomey is keen to move on from Rosscarbery's unsatisfactory Pretty Polly effort after the five-year-old suffered interference from the wayward winner Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the Curragh Group 1 on Saturday.

Rosscarbery (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) getting hampered at a vital stage in the race cost the filly a top three finish, according to Twomey, who labelled the incident "a pity" but is happy to look ahead to the Yorkshire Oaks next.

He said, "She's come out of the Curragh in good form. It was a pity what happened in the race as I think she'd have been in the first three with a clear passage.

"A-mile-and-a-quarter is her minimum trip--she stays a-mile-and-a-half and a-mile-and-six. She needs everything to go right at 10 furlongs, so to get stopped in her tracks like that wasn't ideal, but it is what it is and we move on to the next day."

Rosscarbery has been a model of consistency since joining Twomey's stable last year. After climbing 29lbs and winning five races, including two at Group 3 level and achieving a runner-up spot in a Group 1 contest, Rosscarbery changed hands for 1 million gns at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale to continue her career for Lady Bamford.

Paddy Twomey | Tattersalls

Already a winner of the G3 Munster Oaks at Cork on her reappearance, Rosscarbery will be aimed at races at the top level for the second half of the campaign.

Twomey said, "We'll see what we do, but a race like the Yorkshire Oaks would be very suitable for her; a-mile-and-a-half with a long straight. I think a-mile-and-a-half sees her to best effect, as she showed in Cork in the Munster Oaks. We'll talk with the owners and make a plan, but the aim is to try to win a Group 1 if we can."

ZARAK STORES FILL TOP TWO SPOTS AT ARQANA'S SUMMER SALE

A colt (lot 251) and a gelding (182), both by Zarak (Fr), make €240,000 and €125,000, respectively, to fill the first two places as the Arqana Summer Sale kicked off in Deauville on Wednesday. The pair of stores were both sold by the Channel Consignment.

Thursday's topper, who set a new record top price for a store at the sale, is out of a full-sister to G1 Prix Cambaceres hero Nirvana Du Berlais (Fr) (Martaline {GB}), and went to the session's leading buyer Guy Petit on behalf of Edward James. Sold as Nietzsche Has (Fr), the February-foaled colt is also related to Grade 3 winner and Grade 1-placed Aubusson (Fr) (Ballagarry {Ire}) and two-time graded-scoring jumper Triana Du Berlais (Fr) (Presenting {GB}).

"He's a lovely well-made colt," said Edward James. "He'll go to England to be pre-trained and we hope that he can make into a good racehorse and then stallion in the future."

About midway through the sale, the son of the Grade 3-placed Chata Joana Has (Fr) (Dream Well {Fr}) caught the eye of Bertrand Le Metayer of BLM Bloodstock. Named Nabab Has (Fr), the gelding is out of a half-sister to listed-winning jumpers Na Has (Fr) (Saint Des Saints {Fr}) and Namour Has (Fr) (Doctor Dino {Fr}).

"He's a colt that looks ready made to run at three at Auteuil," said the agent. "I've bought him with Mr. Rolland and Arnaud Chaille-Chaille."

The Channel Consignment was the leading vendor, with 16 sold for an average of €77,125 and a gross of €1,234,000.

Fresh off siring Sunday's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Fantastic Moon (Ger), Sea The Moon (Ger) was also the sire of note of the top-priced 2-year-old on the day, lot 36. Consigned by Knockanglass Stables, the son of Apura (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) went to Nicolas de Watrigant's Mandore International Agency and Alessandro Botti for €85,000. His dam is a half-sister to the Domedriver (Ire) horse Three Bodies (Ire), who won the Listed Prix Ridgway and was second in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano.

Japanese Oaks heroine Erin Court (Jpn) (Durandal {Jpn}) is under the third dam.

“I think he’s one of the best colts in the sale, said Alessandro Botti. “He is by Sea The Moon, a good stallion, and his dam has already produced two winners. We’ve bought him for Mr. Jathiere and one of my clients. We’re very happy and I’m looking forward to him joining my stable.”

Of the 222 offered on Thursday, 182 sold (81.9%) sold for a gross of €6,157,250. The average was €33,831 (+3%) and the median rose to €24,000 (+17%). Nine lots, all stores, sold for six figures.

COTAI GLORY COLT ADDED TO TATTERSALLS JULY SALE

I Am Invictus (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}), fourth in the G2 Railway S. earlier this month, has joined the Tattersalls July Sale as a wildcard and will be offered as part of The Castlebridge Consignment.

Placed in maidens at Naas behind future G2 Coventry S. winner River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Navan in the wake of the subsequent listed-placed Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never) in May and June, respectively, the Michael O’Callaghan trainee is out of Asrafairy (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) and will be consigned as lot 516B. A 160,000gns Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale alumni, he is officially rated 93. His female family features high class dual-Group 1-winner Fairyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), and five-time Group 1-winning sprinter and Group 1 stallion Dream Ahead.

The upcoming sale takes place from July 12-14 at Park Paddocks in Newmarket.

ARC 1 MILLION ALL-WEATHER BONUS SCHEME RETURNS

The £1 million All-Weather Bonus Scheme, which runs from the winter of 2023 through Good Friday in 2024, will return this season, the Arena Racing Company (ARC) announced on Wednesday.

ARC’s four all-weather racecourses, Lingfield Park, Newcastle, Southwell and Wolverhampton will once again host horses to compete for a range of bonus prizes, including five ‘Horse of the Month’ competitions and the overall ‘Horse of the Year’ title, which carries a first prize of £100,000. The bonus scheme will include all races across the four ARC all-weather racecourses from Oct. 17 at Newcastle Racecourse to Good Friday, Mar. 29, 2024. New for this season, the January competition will join February and March in offering £70,000 worth of prizes to the top three horses.

Managing Director of ARC’s Racing Division, Mark Spincer said, “We are delighted to announce the second running of the £1,000,000 All-Weather Bonus Scheme this winter. The competition proved incredibly popular in year one, and we were really pleased with the level of engagement from owners and trainers across the country. We are really looking forward to getting underway again in October and seeing who will come out on top come the end of the season.”

For more information on the scheme and the 2023 results, please visit the ARC website.

on the European racing scene

NO NAY NEVER'S FRANKEL RELATION STEPS OUT AT NEWBURY

18.05 Newbury, Novice, £10,000, 2yo, c/g, 6fT

ARRAY (IRE) (No Nay Never) wins the award for the day's best-bred newcomer, being the sixth foal out of Juddmonte's prized mare Joyeuse (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who shares her famed dam Kind (Ire) (Danehill) with the great Frankel (GB). Not surprisingly, given his achievements with the Juddmonte giant's son Chaldean (GB), Andrew Balding has been handed care of homebred whose half-siblings include the Group 1-placed Maximal (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Jubiloso (GB) (Shamardal).

16.45 Haydock, Novice, £9,999, 2yo, 6f 212yT

HIDDEN PASS (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was a big deal at the Arqana May Breeze Up, with Godolphin going to €400,000 for the Shadwell-bred half-brother to the G2 Let's Elope S. winner Turaath (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Charlie Appleby introduces the February-foaled chestnut in the race which saw Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) earn TDN Rising Star status 12 months ago and which also plays host to Coverdale Stud's Tribal Rhythm (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}), a James Horton-trained half-brother to last month's G1 King's Stand S. hero Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}).

HOW THEY FARED18.10 Tipperary, Cond, €18,000, 2yo, 7f 100yT

Bremen (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the son of the triple Australian group 1 heroine Sea Siren (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and full-brother to last month's G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Warm Heart (Ire), could hardly have shaped with more promise on this debut. Blowing the start, he produced a sustained effort to get a close second which augurs well for his future given that his family all improve with age and experience.

ENGLISH OAK (GB) (c, 3, Wootton Bassett {GB})--Forest Crown {GB} {MSP-Eng}, by Royal Applause {GB}, seventh going seven furlongs at Newbury in his May 19 debut last time, recovered from a slow-motion getaway to stalk the tempo in second after the initial strides. Nudged along once into the straight, the 13-2 chance came under a forceful drive approaching the final furlong and kept on relentlessly in the dying embers to oust Mubhijah (GB) (Shamardal) by a head on the line. He is the seventh foal and winner out of the dual stakes-placed Forest Crown, herself one of five stakes performers, headed by G1 Racing Post Trophy-winning sire Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest), produced by Wiener Wald (Woodman). The February-foaled bay is full to a yearling colt and is also kin to G3 Winter Derby victor Forest Of Dean (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), G2 Prix de Sandringham runner-up Golden Crown (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), G3 Athasi S. third Rionach (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and the unraced 2-year-old colt Forest Caper (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). SHE'S A GAMBLER (IRE) (f, 2, Cotai Glory {GB})--Lady Ro {GB} {SP-Ity}, by Showcasing {GB}, who incurred a seven-pound penalty for annexing her June 13 debut over 5 1/2 furlongs at Wetherby in her only prior start, broke sharply for early control and enjoyed a one-length buffer through halfway in this return. Coming under pressure with a quarter-mile remaining, the 11-8 favourite was strongly pressed soon after and kept on resolutely under a final-furlong drive to prevail by a neck from Angel Of England (GB) (Harry Angel {Ire}). Cont. p8

She's A Gambler is the third foal and scorer produced by Listed Premio Ubaldo Pandolfi runner-up Lady Ro (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), herself the leading performer out of a multiple-winning half-sister to G2 July S. victor Nevisian Lad (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}). The January-foaled bay is half to a yearling colt by Kodiak (GB). Sales history: 22,000gns 2yo '23 TATBRE. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $10,543.

BEYOND BORDERS (IRE) (c, 2, Harry Angel {Ire}--Beyond Limits {Ire}, by Zoffany {Ire}), a June 24 debut fifth tackling six furlongs at Ayr last time, was swiftly away from the stands' side stall and raced on the front end throughout. Holding a slender advantage through halfway, the 4-9 pick was shaken up at the quarter-mile marker and refused to yield under continued urging thereafter, keeping on gamely to withstand the persistent threat of Mr Irrelevant (Ire) (Invincible Army {Ire}) by a half-length. Beyond Borders is the second of three foals and lone performer out of an unraced full-sister to G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. hero Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}). The March-foaled bay's dam, who has a yearling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB) to come, is also kin to Listed Stubbs S. victor Table Rock (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). The winner's fourth dam is G1 Irish 1000 Guineas-winning matriarch Trusted Partner (Affirmed). Sales history: 25,000gns Ylg '22 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $4,462. SAHARA KITTEN (c, 2, Kitten's Joy--Sea Of Snow {SP-Eng}, by Distorted Humor), fourth on debut over an extended seven furlongs at Beverley in June, was soon in front. Dictating throughout, the 7-2 shot stayed on strongly to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Vaha (GB) (Time Test {GB}). The dam, who was third in this track's Woodcote S. when it carried listed status, is a half to the G3 Prix Fille de l'Air scorer Powder Snow (Dubawi {Ire}) who is in turn the dam of last year's G3 Zetland S. winner Flying Honours (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Also kin to the G2 Diana-Trial runner-up Snow (Ger) by Sea The Stars's son Sea The Moon (Ger), she is a granddaughter of the promoted Oaks winner Snow Bride (Blushing Groom {Fr}) who was responsible for the ground-breaking Derby, King George and Arc-winning champion Lammtarra (Nijinsky II). Her yearling filly Justifys Jewell (Justify) was a $240,000 purchase by Steve Evans at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale. She was bred to More Than Ready for 2023. INDICATION SPIRIT (IRE) (f, 2, Magna Grecia {Ire}--Guessing, by Kingmambo), who shaped with promise when second going five furlongs in her June 21 debut last time, was a shade awkward breaking from an outer gate and tracked the leading duo after the initial strides of this one. Rowed along to challenge passing the two pole, the 5-4 favourite inched ahead approaching the final furlong and was driven out in the closing stages to assert by 3/4-of-a-length from Willolarupi (Ire) (Camacho {GB}). Indication Spirit is the seventh of eight foals and third scorer produced by a daughter of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Oaks heroine Imagine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), herself kin to dual Derby-winning sire Generous (Ire) (Caerleon). The March-foaled bay's dam, who has a yearling filly by Calyx (GB) to come, is half to a sextet of black-type performers which includes G1 Criterium International hero Van Gogh (American Pharoah), the ill-fated G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere victor Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill) and Group 1-placed sires Viscount Nelson (Giant's Causeway) and Red Rock Canyon (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). Off the mark over this course and distance in April, Son Of Corballis had looked to have his limitations exposed when seventh in Sandown's Listed National S. the following month but stepped up to cause an upset back on home soil. Always at the fore, he had to battle late to ward off the threats of the eventually-inseparable Alabama and Gaenari but proved up to the task to reward trainer Kieran Cotter's continued faith.

"He didn't travel over well to Sandown, got interfered at the start and dropped back to last," he said. "He was a bit sick when he came home, but we gave him plenty time to recover and knew we had him 100% today. He is in the [July 22] Weatherbys Super Sprint with just 8st 10lb so that is a nice pot to be heading for after here, if he isn't sold. He is a good tough horse and should have a good career ahead of him. He wouldn't want the ground any slower than good."

The unraced dam is a half to the Listed UAE Oaks winner and GI Alcibiades S. third Devotee (Elusive Quality) and the useful listed-placed sprinter Inflection Point (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Also related to the GI American Oaks third Folk (Quiet American) who also captured the UAE Oaks as well as the Listed UAE 1000 Guineas, Equanimity's yearling filly is by Sioux Nation. VIDEO.

In front passing two out, the 10-11 favourite had to battle but dug in to prevail by a diminishing neck from the newcomer Bremen (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "Ger absolutely loves this horse and we were delighted to be able to come here on ground which is on the easy side of good," Shane Lyons said. "He is only learning, didn't handle Roscommon whatsoever and probably didn't handle here. He is still raw and green and he had to pull him around the bends, but it is a great stepping stone for the [G3] Tyros. He is a fabulous horse and is over 500 kilos--I'm sure we've had ones that size before, but they were never any good!" Alfea, who also has a yearling filly by Calyx (GB), is a granddaughter of the G3 Prix Andre Baboin winner Bal De La Rose (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) who is a half-sister to the celebrity Lope De Vega (Ire) and the dam of the G1 Grosser Dallmayr Preis winner Danceteria (Fr) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}). Headed by Megarry (Ire) (Inns Of Court {Ire}) at halfway, the 5-6 favourite regained the initiative approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a late drive to deny that rival by 1 3/4 lengths. "She ran very green, but she's a nice filly and I'd say she should improve a good bit on that," said trainer Kevin Prendergast on the eve of his 91st birthday. "They didn't go any sort of pace so Chris [Hayes] had to make it really. She likes fast ground, but there was a bit of a dig in it today. Hopefully, before the end of the year, she can get a bit of black-type. I'll have to talk to the other owner [Jim Bolger] before we decide what comes next."
